Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 3, 7 – 8, 11 – 14, 18 – 19, 21 – 29 and 31 – 33 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the features of claim 10 were previously objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but indicated allowable because the closest prior art references failed to teach or suggest, either alone or in combination, the draw-off means as claimed, wherein the draw-off means are set into recesses on the means of partitioning the plastic parison. As such, independent claims 1 and 13 have been amended to require the features of claim 10. Thus, independent claims 1 and 13, and their associated dependent claims are allowed.

The Examiner again notes that Applicant has claimed means for partitioning the plastic parison and at least one draw-off means for pulling the plastic parison over the means of partitioning. Because Applicant has claimed in claim 1 that the means of partitioning is a body of triangular cross-section, the Examiner concludes that Applicant has not invoked 35 U.S.C. 112, 6th paragraph. With respect to the draw-off means, the Examiner notes that structure is not denoted for such means in claim 1 and thus, the Examiner interpreted such claim language as an invocation of 35 U.S.C. 112, 6th paragraph (with respect to claim 1 only). Thus, the Examiner interpreted the draw-off means as a driven roller as described in the Specification and equivalents thereof. However, even though the closest prior art references do teach such a driven roller, none teach that the driven roller is set into recesses of the means of partitioning the plastic parison, as claimed and as noted by the Examiner in the previous office. Thus, as stated above, newly-amended claims 1 and 13 and their dependent claims are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
